

Action Research

Through CONNECTION

Do no Harm

Respect

Dignity

Long-term Trust

Sex Trading and Trafficking in Community Context

A Northside Project by the Folwell Center For Urban Initiative
October 2006

Have you traded or sold sex in the last five years?
Do you live or work in North Minneapolis? 18 or older?

If you answer YES, we would like you to do a survey about your life to help build community resources and a prostitution prevention plan for youth.

We value your input and you will be paid* for the survey!

Drop-in and ask for Lauren or Liddy
Folwell Neighborhood Association
2-3pm Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday
11-3pm Friday
1206 27th Ave. N. (btw. Emerson and Fremont)

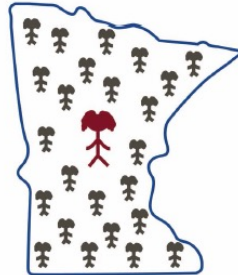

North Point Health and Wellness (Pilot City)
by prior arrangement only

All information is confidential and anonymous. We do not ask your name.

Call Lauren at 612-990-0648
laurenm@folwell.org

Early Intervention to Avoid Sex Trading and Trafficking of Minnesota's Female Youth:
A Benefit-Cost Analysis
Full Report

URDC | Urban Research and Outreach Engagement Center
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
Driven to Discover™

Mapping the Demand
Sex Buyers in the State of Minnesota

FULL REPORT
AUGUST 2017

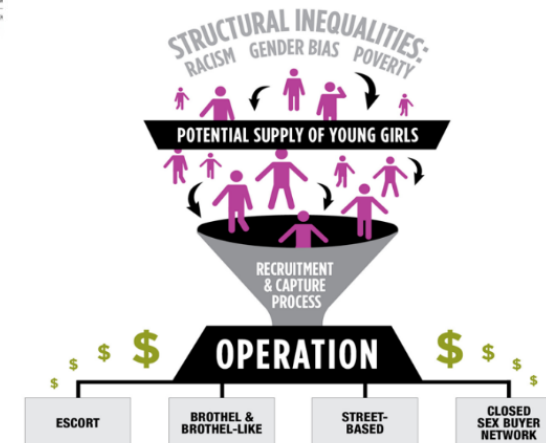

ROBERT J. JONES
Urban Research and Outreach Engagement Center
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
Driven to Discover™

WOMEN'S FOUNDATION OF MINNESOTA

GIFT Research Phase III
Recidivism Outcomes

Final Report on GIFT Research
May 2015

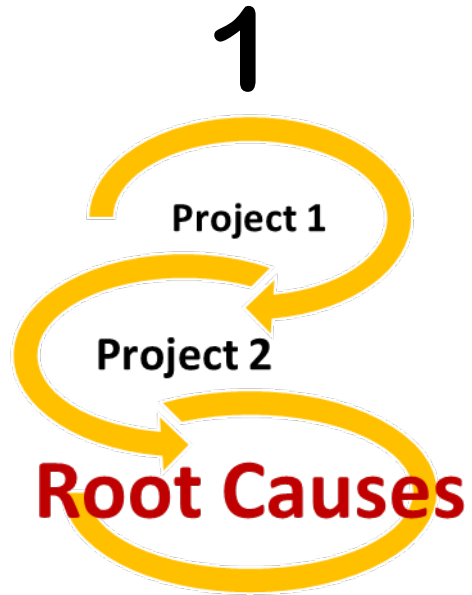

Youth and YPAR

Youth Culture in the Neighborhood (YPAR)

Two projects with agencies serving youth experiencing homelessness in the Northside.

- Learned about an informal market for sex (linked to formal markets) that is located in the same neighborhoods
- Widespread youth-only conversation about sex trading, pervasive whether or not youth were exploited
- Sexually graphic verbal abuse against youth and manipulative social relations drives the informal market
- Sexual violence and exploitation occurs peer-to-peer

2 Overcome Methodological challenges, Ethics & Trust

WHY?

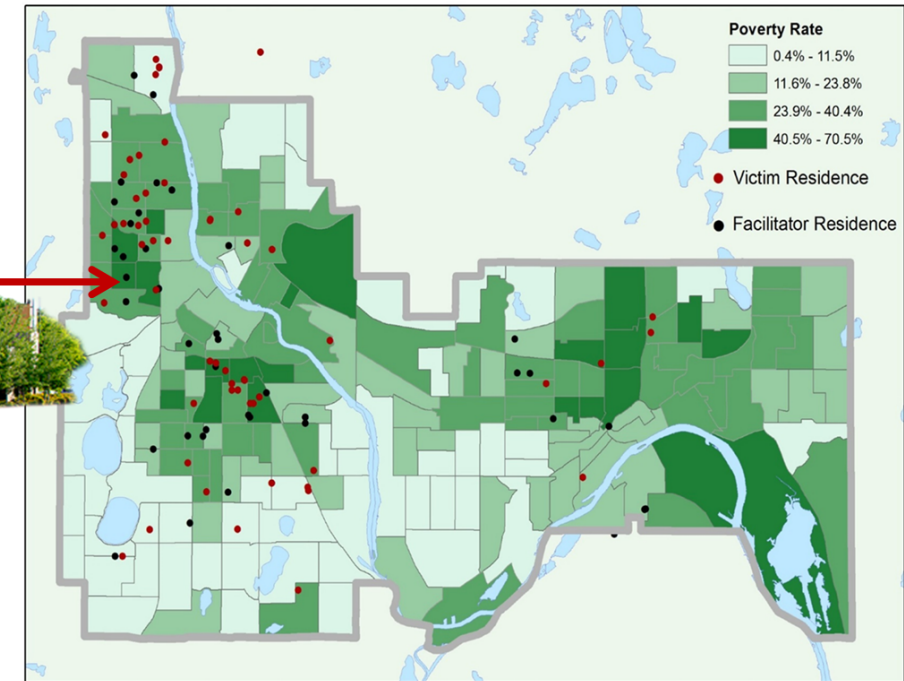

3 Relevance & Action

4 Responsibility

UROC

People in MPD cases of juvenile sex trafficking

Want more information?

Lauren Martin, mart2114@umn.edu

director of research, Robert J. Jones, Urban Research and Outreach
Engagement Center (UROC)

Our website:

UROC.UMN.EDU